

Annie SANDERSON

Annie Sanderson was born in 1823 and, after arriving in the colony, married Captain Alexander McCoy who allegedly led a fairly colourful life: he lived in New Zealand for a period and was Master on several coastal trading ships during his career. They had 2 sons, Arthur a surveyor and Francis a lawyer.

PRG 1337/5/2

McCoy family photo

Cabinet card portrait of the McCoy family taken at the home of Captain Alexander McCoy and his wife Annie (nee Sanderson) at 143 Molesworth Street, North Adelaide.

Left to right, back row:

- 1) William G Daly; 2) unknown; 3) Arthur Charles McCoy (owner of the albums 1865-1892);
- 4) Bingham or Jim Hawker; 5) Captain Alexander McCoy; 6) Henry Debonnaire Gardner Haggard;
- 7) Unknown; 8) Unknown.

Front row:

- 1) Annie (nee Sanderson) McCoy (with cap); 3) Mrs JC Hawker; 4) Annie Louisa (nee Sanderson) Haggard; 5) Miss Hawker or Maud Phillips with first baby; 5) unknown; 6) Mr JC Hawker;
- 7) Mr Frederick James Sanderson.

Child in front: Nellie Sanderson. Baby: Frederick Haggard.